About Ear Pads

Because the ear pads on this product were designed with sound quality as the top priority, attaching them can be difficult.

Please refrain from removing or attaching the ear pads unless necessary, as this may damage them.

Maintenance

Cables may harden due to reactions with various chemicals, especially sebum. After using the product, wipe the cable with a soft cloth slightly dampened with water. Avoid using alcohol-based wet wipes, as they may cause hardening. Please also avoid using non-alcoholic wet wipes, as they may contain various additives.

Warranty and after-sales service

This product is covered by a one-year warranty from the date of purchase. During the warranty period, repairs will be made in accordance with the following warranty regulations. The warranty is valid only in the country where the product was purchased. If you wish to have your product repaired, please check the " SUPPORT" page on our website.

1. If a malfunction occurs within the warranty period while the product is being used in accordance with the warnings and precautions described in the instruction manual, we will repair it free of charge.

2. Even within the warranty period, repairs will be charged in the following cases:

(1) If you cannot provide proof of purchase date, such as a receipt.

(2) If the product has been modified, disassembled, or repaired by a third party other than our company or an organization designated by our company, or by the customer.

(3) If the product has been subjected to a strong impact or has been exposed to water. If the product has been damaged under conditions where excessive force has been applied.

(4) If the product has been damaged due to fire, earthquake, flood, lightning, or other natural disasters, if the product has been damaged due to human error, if the product has been stolen, or if the product has been damaged due to a virus infection.

(5) If the product has been damaged due to scratches on the surface of the casing or if the casing itself has been damaged.

3. We shall not be liable for any damages incurred by the customer as a result of using this product. Furthermore, in no event shall our liability for damages exceed the amount equivalent to the price of this product that you paid.
